

MOVING FORWARD

FAMILY MEDIATION & PARALEGAL SERVICES

Parenting Plans

A parenting plan is a written document that outlines how parents will raise their children after separation or divorce and can include the following:

General statements about the parenting relationship

Making decisions about the child

Children With Special Needs

Sharing Information and Communicating About the Children

Appointments and other practical arrangements for the child

Travel, Moves and relocations

Family dispute resolution processes

Reviewing, monitoring and changing the parenting plan